

Ways to Contribute

Donate to Trusted Organizations

These organizations are on the front lines of protecting voting rights, promoting civic engagement, and strengthening democracy in Georgia & across America. Your support helps them continue their essential work.

Organization	Objectives
Common Cause Georgia www.commoncause.org/georgia/	Promotes transparent and accountable government. They advocate for reforms to ensure fair elections and empower citizens to have a voice in the political process.
Brennan Center for Justice https://www.brennancenter.org	A nonpartisan law and policy institute working to defend democracy and the rule of law. They focus on issues like voting rights, government accountability, and preventing executive overreach.
Center for Constitutional Rights https://ccrjustice.org	CCR uses litigation and advocacy to challenge unconstitutional government practices, defend civil liberties, and promote justice for marginalized communities.
Institute for Justice https://ij.org	A public interest law firm that litigates to protect individual rights, including property rights, free speech, and economic liberty, often taking cases to the Supreme Court.
Georgia STAND-UP https://www.georgiastandup.org	Focuses on civic engagement and economic justice. They provide voter education, leadership development, and advocate for policies that benefit underserved communities.
New Georgia Project https://newgeorgiaproject.org	This nonpartisan organization works to register and engage historically marginalized communities, including Black, brown, and young voters. Their mission is to build long-term power and civic participation across Georgia.
ACLU of Georgia https://www.acluga.org/en	Defends and preserves individual rights and liberties guaranteed by the Constitution. They address issues like voting rights, free speech, and due process.

Volunteer with Local Actions

Taking action starts with showing up — and volunteering is one of the most powerful ways to do it. Every hour, every effort, every voice helps build stronger communities and defend the rights we all rely on. At GA Voices United, we believe that activism belongs to everyone, and it starts with getting involved. Below are organizations across Georgia where you can jump in, make a real impact, and help protect justice, freedom, and democracy:

New GA Project

About: A nonpartisan nonprofit focuses on civic engagement, voter registration, and education, particularly among communities of color and young people in Georgia.

Volunteer Positions: Voter outreach, canvassing, phone banking, and community events

Website: <https://newgeorgiaproject.org/get-involved/>

Fair Fight Action

About: Advocates for fair elections and combats voter suppression.

Volunteer Positions: Voter protection efforts, election monitoring, and public education campaigns

Website: <https://www.fairfight.com/lfgv>

Voices for GA's Children

About: Organization focused on improving the lives of children across Georgia - working on issues like education, healthcare, and child welfare.

Volunteer Positions: Research, policy analysis, and public awareness campaigns

Website: <https://www.georgiavoices.org/>

Freedom University

About: Modern-day freedom school based in Atlanta, providing tuition-free college-level classes to undocumented students. Freedom U. also engages in advocacy for immigrant rights.

Volunteer Positions: Support educational programs, mentorship, and activism efforts

Website: <https://www.freedom-university.org/volunteer>

Feminist Women's Health Center

About: This center provides reproductive health services and advocates for reproductive justice.

Volunteer Positions: Community education, policy advocacy, and support services

Website: <https://feministcenter.volunteermeet.org/>

For any inquiries about this information sheet, contact:

Paige McNichol GAVU Co-Founder

Signal: PaigeMcN.66 Email: gavoicesunited@gmail.com